

TAREK ABBAR

Tarek Abbar is an artist and art director, currently living in Japan. His works are mainly drawings on paper and are characterized by graphic lines, precise strokes and microscopic details as well as a certain Japanese imprint. Through his works he tells complex stories about undefined characters, living in impossible cities with very detailed structures, almost futuristic. In this imaginative world, however, a strong trace of the present always transpires with its possible variations, be they personal or collective.
